THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

25X1

1. The airfield near PILENKOVO (40°5'E/43°24'N), not far from GAGRY (40°15' E/43°20'N), Georgian SSR, appeared to be very large. There was a concrete - asphalt take-off and landing strip on the level landing field. Hangars and billets were available. There was little flying.
2. The field was permanently occupied by:
 - a. About 15 twin-engine aircraft, resembling the Ju-83.
 - b. A large number of single-engine fighters.
 - c. Several biplanes.

Comment:

25X1A6A

- a. The information on the location of the field is too vague for definite identification. The field observed is possibly the civilian airfield near GAGRY.
- b. The airfield and seaplane base of GAGRY is hardly meant, since, in this case, the connection with the sea would have been mentioned.
- c. The aircraft types cannot be identified from the vague description.
